INFORMATION RELEASE

Solano County Sheriff's Tactical Rescue Vehicle
Solano County Sheriff's Office

August 12, 2009

Sheriff Gary R. Stanton is pleased to announce that through a Homeland Security Grant, the Solano County Sheriff's Office has taken possession of an armored tactical rescue vehicle manufactured by Lenco. The Lenco Bear will bring unprecedented tactical capability to Solano County law enforcement agencies.

The Solano County Sheriff's Office will be holding a press conference to unveil this new tactical resource on Thursday, August 13, 2009, at 10:00 AM. The event will be held in front of the Solano County Government Center, which is located at 675 Texas Street in Fairfield, CA.

Sheriff Stanton, Bob Powell, Solano County Office of Emergency Services Manager, and Lieutenant Gary Elliott, the Sheriff's Office SWAT Commander will be on hand to answer any questions you might have regarding this new valuable resource to the region.
