9.1 Vacation

A. Accrual

1. Every employee in a full-time regular or limited-term position shall receive vacation benefits for each pay period of continuous service according to the following schedule:

Vacation Credit:

Pay Periods of Earnable Continuous Service	Per Pay Period of Continuous Service	Maximum Earnable Vacation Accrual
0 through 78 pay periods	3.08 hours	160 hours
79 through 260 pay periods	4.62 hours	240 hours
Over 260 pay periods	6.16 hours	320 hours

Vacation accrual shall date from the first of the pay period following the pay period in which the employee commenced such continuous service. If such commencement date was the first working day of the pay period, vacation accrual shall start from such commencement date.

2. Every employee in a part-time regular or limited-term position shall receive vacation benefits and maximum earnable vacation accrual in the same ratio to the vacation benefits received by an employee in a full-time regular or limited-term position with like pay periods of consecutive service, as the number of hours in the part-time work schedule is to the number of hours in the full-time work schedule. The number of hours of entitlement for Vacation days earned while employed as a full-time employee shall not be reduced by virtue of an employee's status being changed to part-time after such entitlement were earned as a full-time employee.
3. Absence without pay for more than sixteen (16) working hours in a pay period shall cause the pay period's service not to be counted toward earning vacation credit.
4. Vacation time taken shall not be counted as time worked for purposes of overtime computation.
5. Employees who are terminating their employment for reasons other than paid County retirement shall not use annual/vacation leave or comp time as their termination date (e.g., requesting annual/vacation leave or comp time to begin 3-7 and the actual termination date to be 3-13, etc.).

- 6 Employees do not become eligible to take their earned vacation until they have completed thirteen (13) pay periods of continuous service, which service includes successful completion of the probation period and the acquisition of status of a permanent or limited-term non-probationary employee. Employees in classes having a twenty-six (26) pay period probationary period will become eligible to take their earned vacation after completing thirteen (13) pay periods of continuous service. After completion of thirteen (13) pay periods of continuous service, employees then become eligible to take vacation as it is earned.
7. Each Department Head shall be responsible for scheduling the vacations of ~~his/her~~their employees in such a manner as to achieve the most efficient functioning of the department and of the County service. Each Department Head may establish procedures for scheduling vacations. Within the vacation scheduling procedures of each department, Countywide seniority will be used to break any tie between or among employees. No person shall be permitted to work for compensation for the County in any capacity during the time of ~~his/her~~their paid vacation from County service.
8. Any person separating from County service who has not taken ~~his/her~~their earned vacation, if any, shall receive the hourly equivalent of ~~his/her~~their salary for each hour of earned vacation, up to the end of the last full pay period worked, based on the pay rate in effect for each person on the last day actually worked. Such payment shall be to the nearest one tenth of an hour. Employees terminating from County service prior to becoming eligible to take earned vacation shall be paid for earned (accrued) vacation. For purposes of this section, sick leave and compensatory time off with pay shall be counted as days worked. When separation is caused by death of an employee, payment shall be made to the estate of such employee, or in applicable cases, as provided by Section 630 of the Probate Code.
9. A person receiving pay in lieu of unused vacation may not be re-employed by the County of Solano in any capacity until a number of working days equal to the number of days paid vacation has elapsed following the effective date of the separation. Nothing in this Section shall be interpreted as preventing a Department Head from filling a position vacated by separation immediately following the effective date of separation.

10. Upon the presentation of medical verification acceptable to the Department Head that an employee was seriously ill or injured during a scheduled vacation, employees may request the substitution of sick leave for vacation for the period of serious illness or injury.

B. Notice to Department Heads

If the Department Head does not provide a specific time for the use of vacation leave, an employee may, with fourteen (14) calendar written days' notice, as a matter of right, when the accumulated vacation to ~~his/her~~ their credit reaches ~~his or her~~ their maximum earnable vacation accrual, give written notice to Department Head and take up to eighty (80) hours.
