Cool Science News: Green Comet comes closest to Earth in 50,000 years

A green comet is set to pass by Earth for the first time since the Stone Age. Astronomers had never seen it before, because it takes an incredibly long time to circle the sun, completing an orbit over tens of thousands of years. The comet is expected to be about 26 million miles from Earth on February 2. That would be the closest it has been to the Earth in 50,000 years, according to astronomers. Read the full story HERE.

Opinion Article: COIVD is speaking: It's saying it's not done with us

Check out this article, originally posted in the Washington Post. The world has let its guard down on covid-19. And the virus's latest dominant form, XBB.1.5, makes clear that we're doing so just as the virus finds new ways to hurt us. The new dominant strain shows that the virus is always evolving to spread more quickly and infect us more efficiently. That should serve as a wake-up call for the country to re-invest in new vaccines, treatments and pandemic monitoring.

Events I attended this week

Tuesday, January 10

Leachman Park Association met with county staff and me to receive an update of the work to be done on Benicia Rd. I am very excited about this project. Members of the Association are interested in art and plants to enhance their community as we work together on this project. It was nice to see people in person. I want to thank everyone that was able to attend.

Wednesday, January 11

I had the privilege and honor of attending an Eagle Scout Court of Honor. The event was held at the Vallejo Veteran's Hall. Six young men received the highest honor a Scout can achieve. As the sister of an Eagle Scout, the family and other members of the community are very involved. I love these events. They represent the words "it takes a village". It should remind all of us of THE BOY SCOUT OATH: On my honor, I will do my best, to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout law. To help other people at all times, to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.
